

A Multi-Faceted Educational Program

- Connect with Admissions Officers from prestigious DC universities
- Meet American students and gain insight on campus life
- Learn about U.S. history and culture in the nation's capital
- Participate in an environmental service-learning activity
- Experience American sports, amusements, theater and art

Organised by Ourania Education Network, with support from Destination DC, the Edu-Tourism Festival offers students a unique opportunity to visit pre-eminent universities while exploring Washington, D.C.'s iconic sites. This program highlights all the fun that can be found in a city known for its youthful vibrancy!

The "Edu" in the Edu-tourism Festival was designed to complement the International Baccalaureate (IB) Diploma program. Daily activities make connections to IB subject groups, and students might consider including reflections on their DC experience in their culminating portfolios.

Overall, the program will underscore to students how the IB Diploma Programme has prepared them for a rigorous course of study abroad.
